Does Reb storage systems offer pallet rack repair services?

REB Storage Systems International offers professional pallet rack repair services. These include repairs to uprights, struts, and footplates for both roll formed and structural steel frames. Our pallet rack repair services follow all guidelines set forth by the American National Standards Institute and Rack Manufacturer's Institute.

What are urgent racking repairs?

Urgent racking repairs reduce risk immediately and keep your warehouse safe and operational. Our engineers are on call to respond quickly to high-priority repairs. Using OEM parts and SEMA-approved methods, we fix damaged uprights, beams, bracing, and base plates to restore full structural safety.

Why do you need a racking repair service?

Whether you need urgent repairs after impact damage or preventative maintenance to extend system life, our team delivers fast and sustainable solutions. Our Racking Repair services: Fast response to minimise downtime and reduce risk. Scheduled repairs to prevent failures and extend racking lifespan.

Are racking repairs necessary in a warehouse?

Repairs are only part of keeping a warehouse safe. Regular inspections are the first line of defence. Under HSE guidance (HSG76) and PUWER regulations, all racking is classed as work equipment, which means it must be inspected and maintained to remain in a safe condition.
